First ACM/IEEE International Conference on Hardware/Software Codesign and System Synthesis

Marriott Hotel, Newport Beach, California USA, October 1-3, 2003

Co-Located with First International Workshop on Embedded Systems For Real-Time Multimedia, October 3-4, 2003

The CODES+ISSS Conference is the merger of two major international symposia on hardware/software codesign and system synthesis. The new Conference combines the strengths of these two closely related communities into an open forum that promotes active discussion on innovative topics. Symposium proceedings are published by ACM SIGDA, and select papers from the conference proceedings will be targeted for a special issue of ACM Transactions on Embedded Computing Systems (TECS).
